"Church congregations describe themselves in many ways, including "Body of Christ," "Church," "Family of God," "Christians," and even "Team." Yet congregations rarely, if ever, refer to themselves in terms of the "Kingdom of God," the central image used by Jesus to frame his entire life and ministry. This short book considers what might happen if the pastor and members of a local congregation began to think of themselves as being "the exhibition of the kingdom of God to the world." Drawing on Scripture, contemporary Christian writers, and 37 years of pastoral ministry, the author challenges pastors, teachers, and church leaders to re-imagine the local church through the kingdom-focused eyes of Jesus." -- from the back cover.

Excerpt from Discourse on the Fiftieth Anniversary of His Ordination as Pastor of the Church in Simsbury, Conn This day completes the fiftieth anniversary, since my ordination to the work of {the Gospel Ministry. O with What rapidity the years have passed away! How like a dream when one awaketh How like a shadow that moves over the plains, and is then out of sight! Fifty years are gone! How near am I to eternity! How momentous the consideration that the great day draws on, when I must meet the beloved people of my charge at the bar of my final Judge. O that I may then be enabled to say, here am I, and the children which thou hast given me. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Pastor Appreciation 2020 Weekly Planner

Lenny Duncan is the unlikeliest of pastors. Formerly incarcerated, he is now a black preacher in the whitest denomination in the United States: the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). Shifting demographics and shrinking congregations make all the headlines, but Duncan sees something else at work--drawing a direct line between the church's lack of diversity and the church's lack of vitality. The problems the ELCA faces are theological, not sociological. But so are the answers. Part manifesto, part confession, and all love letter, Dear Church offers a bold new vision for the future of Duncan's denomination and the broader mainline Christian community of faith. Dear Church rejects the narrative of church decline and calls everyone--leaders and laity alike--to the front lines of the church's renewal through racial equality and justice. It is time for the church to rise up, dust itself off, and take on forces of this world that act against God: whiteness, misogyny, nationalism, homophobia, and economic injustice. Duncan gives a blueprint for the way forward and urges us to follow in the revolutionary path of Jesus.

Commemorating the First Anniversary of the Present Pastor and the 175th Anniversary of the Beechridge Baptist Church

Excerpt from A Pastor's 25th and a Church's 150th Anniversary: Rev. Owen P. Eaches, D.D., Pastor, 1870-1895, May 29th and June 2nd, 1895; The Hightstown Baptist Church, 1745-1895, November 1st and 3rd, 1895 Twenty-five years ago Rev. O. P. Baches accepted the call to become pastor of our church At that time the Board of Trustees consisted of ten members, and there were five Deacons. Now there are fifteen Trustees and seven Deacons, three Deaconesses and ten assistants. They were faithful and true men, earnest and anxious for the advancement of the Lord's cause. As was the custom of many churches at that time, the Trustees and Deacons seldom met for the transaction of business. Their work had to be planned and mainly executed by the pastor. In our pastor they found a wise counsellor, an earnest worker and a most efficient leader. Under his faithful administration, with the loyal co-operation of the church and her officers, the temporal and financial affairs of the church were wisely adjusted, and the spiritual life of the church greatly developed. These faithful men who formed the Boards in the early years of this pastorate, have gone to their reward. We, the present Trustees and Deacons, have been called to fill their places and carry forward the work begun by them. We wish to record, on this 25th anniversary, our gratitude for the continuance of this pastorate, and our high appreciation of the helpful services of our pastor. In the discharge of the duties devolving upon us as officers of our church, we have been patiently instructed, wisely led, and cheerfully encouraged to every good work. Some of us have been brought into the Kingdom of our Lord by his instrumentality. His preaching has been a clear and forcible presentation of the gospel of Christ, and it has come to us, not in words only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit. We have all felt the power of his consecrated life. We know the happy influence of his ministry in our homes. As officers of this church we cannot express the feelings of our hearts, when we remember his brotherly kindness and the Christ-like spirit manifested by him in conducting all the affairs of our church. To day, as we stand on the summit of twenty-five years and look back on the record of our church life, we rejoice in the Lord for His goodness, and are glad for what He has done for us. Whatever of progress and growth has been attained, we recognize the guiding hand and master mind and Christian spirit of our pastor, who has been, for these twenty-five years, a pastor, friend and brother. May his years be prolonged and his work established, and the union that now exists be continued many years to the edification of the church and the glory of our Lord and his Christ. 100th Anniversary

The pastor's anniversary celebration is a very important event in the life of the church. The word of God that is preached in honor of the man of God, should encourage, equip and uplift the preacher. Here are 8 different sermons that will assist the friend of the preacher trying to encourage their brother on his special day.
