This is the first emotional guide to the best Italian Extra-Virgin Olive Oils. The best of the best tasted and rigidly evaluated. Italy, among the regions of the Mediterranean, is historically known for the best and most refined production of olive oil. This leading position is recognized worldwide, even though we still appreciate the superb Greek and Spanish productions. Among the Italian regions that produce oil, that is to say the majority of them, Tuscany is by far the most represented in this guide. There is no doubt that Sicily, Apulia, Basilicata and Umbria are giving an excellent contribution to the production of quality. In fact, on these pages you will find a few exceptional oils that come from those regions. Nevertheless, in terms of the selection of the cultivar, productions for purity, biological productions and productions with low acidity, Tuscany is second to none. To this we might add that the decisive taste - often slightly spicy - combined with a delicate bitter after-taste make it a must both for the cultivators of the Mediterranean diet as well as for the lovers of award-winning haute cuisine.

From the award-winning authors of Bread in Half the Time comes a complete guide to making nearly 100 European-style breads with the indispensable aid of your bread machine. Nothing smells quite as wonderful as bread baking in the oven. Nothing tastes quite as good as a thick slice of fresh, warm homemade bread. And nothing can be quite as intimidating or time-consuming as mixing, kneading, raising, and baking that bread--until now! With a bread machine to do all the hard work, and experts Linda West Eckhardt and Diana Collingwood Butts as guides, anyone can turn out a perfect sourdough, raisin pumpernickel, focaccia, or any other variety of classic European breads featured in this book. The trick is to use the machine for what it does best-mixing and kneading the dough that produces the loaves we all love so much. After letting the dough rise in the machine, you shape it by hand and bake it to perfection in the oven. With Rustic European Breads from Your Bread Machine in hand, every home cook can become a master baker. Eckhardt and Butts provide not only an encyclopedic knowledge of their subject and foolproof step-by-step recipes, but also limitless, contagious enthusiasm. Their clear and thorough explanations will turn every home kitchen into an aromatic, appetite-satisfying European bakery. Linda Eckhardt and Diana Collingwood Butts authored Bread in Half the Time, winner of the International Association of Culinary Professionals Award for Best Cookbook of the Year in 1991. Linda Eckhardt, author of over a dozen cookbooks, writes the monthly column "What's for Dinner" in Cooking Light Magazine and hosts a weekly program called Pie in the Sky on National Public Radio. Diana Collingwood Butts is the proprietor of Sugarbakers, a company that makes and sells designer cookies for special order. Wine, whisky or gin tastings are standard, but more and more people wish for a high quality of basic food too. With their interest in brand-new high-quality olive oils, the community of culinarians is about where it was some thirty years ago with wines. Like the ambitious and rebellious young vintners, the young guns back then, today ambitious olive farmers and oil millers create top-quality products by using state-of-the-art techniques and being open to scientific findings. About ten years ago, these highly aromatic oils that are rich with polyphenol did not exist for lack of the necessary oil mill technology. To help consumers make informed decisions, this book introduces the background of production and cultivation, presents the stars of the scene and a fine choice of exquisite but easy to cook recipes. AUTHOR: Michaela Bogner's fascination with olive oils started between 1999 and 2005 when she lived near Florence and made first contact with regional olive farmers. In 2011 she was trained as an olive oil taster by the Florentine Chamber of Industry and Commerce and became a member of the Italian ANAPOO (i.e.: association of olive oil tasters). Since the olive harvest of 2011/2012 she imports high-quality olive oils from Italy, gives seminars on olive oil and organises commented tastings. Her blog 'dasgoldderbauern.de' (i.e.: farmers' gold) gives comprehensive information about high-quality Super Olio. Focus online and the SWR interviewed her, the specialist magazine Merum and Delikatessen wrote about her seminars. SELLING POINTS: * Trendy topic high-quality basic food * Perfectly staged by multiple prize-winning graphic artist and best-selling author Stefan Bogner * Superb, specially-invented recipes by Cettina Vicenzino, food photographer, cook and author of cookbooks Computerworld Palidano Press
