 Ein Haus auf dem Land Als er in Berlin auf Wohnungssuche ist, erfährt Jan Brandt, dass das Haus seines Urgroßvaters in seinem ostfriesischen Heimatdorf Ihrhove kurz vor dem Abriss steht. Der Eigentümer, ein Bauunternehmer, sieht keinen Grund, das Alte zu erhalten, wo sich durch etwas Neues der Gewinn um ein Vielfaches steigern lässt. Jan Brandt droht der Verlust der Heimat – und er nimmt den Kampf auf, um den Gulfhof zu retten, das Symbol seiner Herkunft. Eine Wohnung in der Stadt Berlin hat sich verändert. Das bekommt Jan Brandt, der sich Ende der Neunzigerjahre vor der Provinz dorthin geflüchtet hatte, am eigenen Leib zu spüren – ihm droht der Rauswurf aus der Mietwohnung. Grund: Anmeldung von Eigenbedarf. Er begibt sich auf die Suche nach einem neuen Ort, an dem er bleiben kann, einer neuen Heimat. Und muss feststellen, dass sich die einstige antikapitalistische Utopie in eine Schlangengrube verwandelt hat, in der die Mieter nahezu alles für eine bezahlbare Wohnung tun würden – und müssen. Die eBook-Ausgabe des Bestellers – erweitert um ein Kapitel in ‚Ein Haus auf dem Land‘.

 In the age of Sex and the City, when Manhattan has been elevated to the Mecca of the world, Wolfgang Hermann prefers to wander through the red-light district, immigrant quarters, bad neighborhoods and the docks. Hermann's readers are confronted with homeless people, immigrants and the poor. Other people and their stories abound in his writing, although Hermann's poor flâneurs are not granted the privilege of merely strolling and observing, for encounters play a particularly pivotal role in his texts. With an introduction by Mark Miscovich.

 Run by Karen Morton, the eccentric, sex-fantasy-prone mother in a hilarious yet deeply troubled dysfunctional family in North Vancouver, the Footstop Cafe is a place to put your feet up near the beautiful but tragedy-plagued Lynn Canyon and its vertigo-inspiring footbridge. The canyon and the cafe serve as the nexus around which Karen's universe revolves. Things happen here. Amazing things. Karen's husband is a podiatrist with a foot fetish, her teenage daughter thinks she's a lesbian but is afraid to confront the reality, and her younger son is given to having bowel movements in closets and building bombs. Throw in Karen's unconventional Anglican minister father and his Tibetan wife, a hairy belly dancer named Moey, a randy virgin high school diver with Olympic ambitions, and a host of other quirky, unforgettable characters and you have a debut novel that is at turns absurdist, touching, manic, and supremely irreverent.

 Während der Zeit auf dem größten Hospitalschiff der Welt, der Africa Mercy, lernte die Autorin eine der spannendsten Gegenden Afrikas kennen: Die sogenannte Sklavenküste, wie der Küstenstreifen zwischen dem Osten Ghanas und dem Westen Nigerias zur Zeit des transatlantischen Sklavenhandels genannt wurde. Alleine und mit Freunden vom Schiff erkundete sie das Land, nahm an einer aufregenden Voodoozeremonie teil und besuchte die Sklavenburgen an der Küste Ghanas. Sie machte Bekanntschaft mit einem togolesischen Fußballnationalspieler und Kinderarbeitern auf dem Grand Marché in Lomé, der Hauptstadt Togos. Während der Zeit auf dem Schiff arbeitete die Autorin im Café sowie im Ship Shop und nahm die Gelegenheit wahr, Operationen beizuwohnen. So lernte sie auch Regina kennen, eine jungen Patientin auf der Africa Mercy. Auf der Reise in den Norden Togos und durch Benin im Anschluss des Schiffsaufenthaltes erlebte sie abenteuerliche Unterkünfte in einem togolesischen Nationalpark und lernte das Volk der Tamberma kennen, das Jahrhunderte lang abgeschnitten von der Zivilisation lebte und bis heute seine traditionelle Lebensweise beibehalten hat. Die Region, in der die Tamberma leben, heißt Koutammakou und gehört zum UNESCO-Weltkulturerbe. In Benin erkundete sie die Tierwelt des Pendjari Nationalparks und fuhr nach Abomey, um in die Welt des Voodoo einzutauchen. Dabei traf die Autorin auf einen Voodoo-Priester, der ihr einige Rituale dieser Religion näher brachte. Ebenso erforschte sie die Paläste der legendären Könige von Dahomey - deren Macht beruhte auf dem Sklavenhandel, den sie mit den Europäern betrieben sowie auf dem weiblichen Arm ihrer Streitmacht den furchtlosen Amazonen, Kriegerinnen, denen auch die Europäer hohen Respekt zollten.

 The life of a parent — especially a new parent — can seem pretty demanding, with your days organised around feedings, nappy changes and sleep times. But we know there are many joys of being a parent, and that includes still being able to go out and explore your city — they way you did before you had your baby or toddler in tow. In Mini Me Sydney you'll find loads of ideas for fun things for parents to do with their little ones around Sydney. There are places to play together — museums, farms, festivals and the like — as well as child-friendly cafes, and shops where you'll covet the goods as much for yourself as for your children. Everything's aimed at kids aged zero through five, although most listings are also perfect for older kids. With a gorgeous design and a number of suburbs covered in each city, these ebooks make the ideal baby shower gift or a lifesaver for parents who like to have as much fun on outings as their kids.

 An unusual arcade game controls the fate of mankind; a priest unknowingly calls more into the world than he bargained for; a biker becomes a human switchblade; a man with an odd fetish meets his match; a legendary talk show host and famous general team up in an alternate realm where TV is the mandated religion. Mythical creatures strive for survival as a struggling strip club features a most bizarre act; an infamous punk singer capitalizes on his body horror while a family become slaves to a malevolent household fixture. And why is that woman on the train dressed like it's the 1930s? Hopefully she won't catch that nasty East Nile Virus. In Nick Cato's world, few things are what they seem, and everything is always slightly askew. Welcome to The Satanic Rites of Sasquatch and Other Weird Stories.

 After asking a hookup to give her a black eye, Ida J. returns to memories of her first BDSM experiences. A recent art school drop out in London Ida J. happened to casually like pain. In search of painful pleasures, she stumbles upon a kinky café and bookshop and in the absence of initiation rites and rituals involving pain, she decides to learn more about BDSM from group that met weekly in the café's basement. At one such meeting, and not appropriately dressed for such kink, Ida J. receives her inaugural spanking. The experience of contrasting pleasures opens her eyes to BDSM. She longs for more. She continues to explore the world of painful desires and at one meeting, she offers her body to be bound in rope by a gorgeous porn star. At an underground London club, Ida. J. develops a heightened taste for pain in the form of needles. Each prick of the sharp objects through her skin is accompanied by droplets of blood, and euphoria soon follows. However, this act is more like wearing extraordinary jewelry, and is a stepping stone in her journey, one that ultimately leads to Jason, her first love.

Roasted & ground coffee beans infused in hot water have been fueling people's lives -- & dreams -- for thousands of years the world over. This book collects 100 works by leading Czech artist Jiri Sliva, who depicts the universal infatuation with coffee. Sliva marshals his unique visual poetry into the service of his beloved brew, from the myth of Sisyphus to a game of golf, from a portrait of Einstein to camels at an oasis, from dogs out for a walk to lovers in bed. Includes reproductions of Sliva's oil paintings, lithographs, etchings, line drawings, & cartoons. "A marvelous portrayal of the addictive pleasures of a cup of joe as we have never imagined them before." "A delicious & dazzling tribute to the last legal & socially acceptable drug -- coffee!"

Welcome to Café du Femme, New York's premier gentlemen's club, featuring the most delectable exotic dancers ever to work the pole. If you see a girl you like, feel free to hire her for a 'private banquet', and enjoy the ultimate dining pleasure. Café du Femme caters to a very exclusive fetish where women are literally on the menu! Plucky stripper (and popular entré) Traci Maxwell enjoys her job as a 'cannibal dancer'. It unlocks her secret passion, and provides a solid income of tips. Posing for 'Grendel', a notorious 'femme-cuisine' artist, has earned her a wealth of hungry fans. It's all in good fun, ... until the 'Gourmet Killer' arrives, and starts roasting 'du Femme' dancers for real. With cooked bodies turning up throughout the city, Traci teams with the NYPD to trap the culinary Jack-the-Ripper who has an insatiable appetite for New York strip(per) steak. Assisted by the handsome CEO of a successful butcher chain, she exposes the terrible secret of a notorious Tong enterprise, and lures the 'GK' out into the open. But can she stop the killer in time, before more girls are eaten, and Traci herself winds up a blue-plate special? The Footstap Café Fodor's Travel

Once upon a time, we knew the origins of things: what piece of earth the potato on our dinner plate was grown in; who cobbled our shoes; from which well, spring, or rain barrel our water was dipped. This fascinating book traces the three simple commodities in the title on their geographic and semantic journey from Cohen's table in Somerville's Someday Cafe to their various points of origin.

Wie kam eine viktorianische Lady ausgerechnet auf die verrückte Idee, ins Grab des weißen Mannes zu reisen, zeigte sich doch schon die Karte von Westafrika in Rabenschwarz, von Sierra Leone bis über den Kongo hinaus. Eine deutliche Warnung, um die sich Mary Kingsley jedoch wenig scherte. Mit ihren 30 Jahren galt die Viktorianerin als "alte Jungfer", von der man keinesfalls erwartet hätte, dass sie ihren Seesack packt, einen alten Kohlendampfer besteigt und in der Gesellschaft trinkfester Händler alleine nach Westafrika fährt. Was sie auf ihren abenteuerlichen Reisen (1893 bis 95) an der Küste, in den krokodilreichen Flüssen und Mangrovensümpfen, in den Dörfern der kannibalischen Fang oder hoch oben auf dem Kamerunberg erlebte, hielt sie in Briefen, Buschjournalen und Tagebüchern fest. Ihre erste Begegnung mit Eingeborenen fand Miss Kingley allerdings erschreckend. Als in Tabu plötzlich eine Horde tätowierter schwarzer Männer an Bord erschien, flüchtete sie in ihre Kabine, wo bereits ein paar spärliche bekleidete Gentleman ihre Koffer durchwühlten, ihre Käfersammlung begutachteten und die Funktion ihrer Zahnbürste erkundeten. Die gefährlichen "Wilden" entpuppten sich jedoch als freundliche Kru, denen Mary Kingsley in Westafrika öfter begegnete als einem Krokodil, Elefanten oder einem Nilpferd. Um ihre magere Reisekasse aufzubessern, marschierte sie mit einer Warenkiste voll Tabak, Schnaps und allerlei Krimskrums durch den Urwald. Als Buschhändlerin saß sie als Ehrengast am abendlichen Feuer, palaverte mit den Häuptlingen, entlockte dem Hexendoktor ein paar Fetischgeheimnisse und feilschte geschickt um den besten Preis für Rohgummikugeln und Elfenbein. Gefährliche Situationen, bei denen ein Haudegen wie Stanley wohl um sich geschossen hätte, löste Mary Kingsley mit "stundenlangem Palaver und etwas Tabak". Trotz ihrer Begeisterung für Westafrika, fragte sich die Lady gelegentlich selbst: "Was mache ich kapitaler Esel eigentlich in diesem Land"?

Women's Travel in Your Pocket is a lifeline to women's hotels, restaurants, discos, bars, feminist bookstores, lesbian centers, and lesbian hotlines across the globe, but that's just part of the story. The book's Calendar section lists hundreds of women's events, women's festivals, and mixed gaylesbian events worldwide, as well as departure dates for women's tours, resort vacations, and outdoor adventure trips. A special section describes the tour companies in detail, and a mail-order section includes a listing of all kinds of companies that tailor their products and services to women and lesbians. Compact enough to fit in a pocket or -- for "lipstick lesbians" -- a purse, it features unique national" gay-lesbian symbols that provide important details about bars and other business. Thoroughly revised, this 19th edition of Women's Travel in Your Pocket is astonishingly up-to-date, with listings added and/or revised as little as two weeks before press time.

When, out of desperation, Bran Caspar takes a job in a women's designer shoe store, little does he know he's just entered a world of secret shoe fetishes and a string of cafés designed to cater to a man's every whim and secret obsessions. It's a world that turns out to be deadly but highly compelling, especially with a certain "maid" named Rick. For Bran's best friend, Finn, the prospect of a new business is a pleasant distraction from his horrible breakup with his lover, Waldo. And speaking of which, where is Waldo? Right inside The Fetish Café, looking for more than a cup of coffee. Will these best friends find happiness at the end of their shift, or will they, too, become victims of The Fetish Café?

Explore the depths of fetishism in this fourth anthology by acclaimed Leg Show Magazine contributor Gray Fisher, who specializes in weaving exciting adventures of men being used, manipulated, and controlled sexually by the gorgeous women in their lives, sometimes in front of appreciative audiences of like-minded females. Ultimately, what little pleasure these lustful men attain comes at the steep price of their dignity, as they are disparaged, debased and humiliated by their tormentress' fingers, toes, stockings and high-heeled designer shoes, along with their expressions and words of contempt. An executive accompanying his lovely boss on an overseas trip discovers an odd eatery where women's meals are subsidized by the men beneath their feet, but soon learns he's bitten off more than he can chew. A mischievous, sexually adventurous woman rings in the New Year with a party for all her friends...while her husband is tied naked to their bed upstairs. A patient's indiscretion during a chiropractic visit results in a different kind of adjustment on the treatment table by the chiropractor and female staff, along with a nylon-clad surprise guest. A beautiful young woman cut out of her rich aunt's estate uses her significant charms to convince the probate attorney to revise the will, and face possible disbarment for doing so. And when a businessman's car breaks down, he's captivated by the pedal-pumping legs of a comely good Samaritan, only to discover he's gone miles out of his way. Arriving home hours late, he must suffer the consequences at the hands of his domineering wife and her girlfriends. Bursting with detail and conveying the inner turmoil of these helpless men as they seek sexual relief - no matter who's watching - these six new, never-before-published stories are a must-read for anyone who knows his place is at the feet of a demanding goddess. Or, in the words of the great fetish scribe Irv O'Neal, "if you enjoy the idea of dominant women in everyday life-not in dungeons or leather-fulfilling your fetishes and making you feel blushingly shamed, enter Gray Fisher's web of femdom fantasies."

BarbarianSpy Extreme: BDSM, Rough gay sex, domination and control. Includes the habu BDSM classic ""Dark Angel Sounding"" "Sounding: Ultimate Control" provides, in paperback, six stories by habu of what possibly is the most intimate and dominating sex act one man can perform on another, one that is so intimate and extreme that it is only rarely written about. The wandering of another man's urethral canal is a fetish of domination, trust, and control. One slip of the wand and a man can be ruined. Few engage in the activity, but those who do know that it can provide the ultimate arousal and sexual satisfaction. The first work in this anthology is an expanded version of ""Dark Angel Sounding,"" appearing here in paperback form for the first time ever. Probably habu's most controversial and popular previously published work-

""Dark Angel Sounding"" certainly has generated more discussion than has anything he has published before. The story follows in intimate and detailed description, the deepening subjugation of a young man to the ultimate control of an older man-his Dark Angel. ""Career Guidance"" is the story of a young-looking Hollywood star who has rebelled against always playing young, boyish roles by engaging in a life of debauchery, including publicly gossiped-about encounters in a car with a transvestite. His agent, as a last-chance measure, uses the controlling mechanism of sounding to put the young actor in his place and attempt to save his career as well as fulfill the long-frustrated sexual fantasies of the agent himself. In ""Searching for It"" a young sailor from Vancouver, who is on the East Coast of the United States for the first time in his life, working on a private yacht, goes searching for sexual relief in the gay district of New York near the docks area at the foot of Manhattan. He finds something he's never experienced before, the tease of a sounding-like technique, in a gay club and winds up kidnapped to be given the full sounding experience himself. A high-paid male prostitute is given a "punishment" assignment by his pimp to provide unusual and taxing services to a kinky doctor in ""Prepped and Sounded."" And ""Roswell's Frontier Motel"" brings an alien variation of sounding into the supernatural world for a highly unusual take on this form of male sex act. The concluding story, ""Do You Trust Me?,"" takes the reader to the picturesque Italian harbor town of Positano, where a young fisherman and cafe singer shows that he's willing to do anything to leave Italy and break into movies-even a very specific kind of movie.

These sexy stories feature dominant white men spanking chocolate women: My Secret White Baby Nikki's boyfriend Jordan is taking her for granted in a real way - she's lucky if she can get a word out of him, let alone some love and affection. So when her girl comes to visit, why shouldn't she hit up the club? Her innocent intentions don't mean much when Jake, the owner of the club, spots her on the dance-floor and decides he likes what he sees. Nikki has no plans to cheat, that is, until she gets a text from her friend with a picture of Jordan getting into some ho's car. A night of drunken, unprotected passion in the VIP is just the start for Nikki though, when a few weeks later she takes a pregnancy test only to find out that's pregnant with Jake's baby! Spanked By My White Boss When Tanya gets a call from her cheating ex-boyfriend Andreas at work, she knows it can't end well. She's cut off contact with him completely, but when he threatens to show up at her work she is scared that her past will come back to haunt her. Meanwhile, her boss Maxwell, head of the law firm she works for decides to meet her in the work cafe... just when Andreas decides to show up! What happens next changes Tanya's entire life around, starting from the moment she walks into Maxwell's office later on that afternoon. Maxwell wants something from Tanya badly, and he knows just how to get it from her... Spanked Into Submission Kiki, an African American woman, is excited for her first day on the job working as the personal assistant for Mark Maverick, the secretive multi-millionaire entrepreneur. She's surprised to be picked for the job without so much as an interview, despite the fact that her resume is mediocre and this is her first real job. Things make more sense as Mark reveals his true desires - he ordered the best background check money could buy and discovered some interesting posts from her online, posts that describe a longing to be bent over and spanked like the naughty girl she is... She can't deny the posts were hers. Mark uses his knowledge to his advantage, wasting no time in bending her over, ripping her panties down and spanking her until her eyes well up. Mark is a man who always gets what he wants, and what he wants is to dominate Kiki completely and use her in every way imaginable without protection.
