Their hospital bracelet, the outfit they wore home from the hospital, a special blanket, sleep toy, lock of hair and other such treasures. That's not even taking into consideration the pile of papers, art projects, award certificates and ribbons and even a few crumbling salt and flour maps, right? But let's face it—there comes a time when you want to pare down the treasures you've accumulated throughout your lifetime. This is especially true if, like me, you have a large family because a large family equals a lot of stuff! So what's a parent to do with these childhood treasures without seeming cold and unfeeling? Give them back to their original owner, that's what! Give them back in a keep-forever treasure box. mean gift them to your children .It's also a whole lot fun; making your laugh, smile and even shed a few tears as you stroll down memory lane. So grab a glass of iced tea, sit back and relax and prepare to be inspired to create a keep-forever treasure chest for the most special people in your life.
